Sandy Springs, Georgia

Sandy Springs is one of the best places in the country in which to do business. A robust community of Fortune 500 corporations, mid-size companies, and new businesses enjoy a low tax rate and award-winning municipal services. The City balances the best of modern southern living; high-rise towers and riding stables, world-class medical centers and scenic and protected national river corridor, international consulates and neighborhoods that resemble botanical gardens.

Sandy Springs is a demographically diverse community covering a 38-square-mile area in North Fulton County. Sandy Springs is the second largest city in the metropolitan Atlanta area and is the sixth largest city in the state. The City is positioned in the heart of the metro area, providing an attractive geographic and demographic focal point. The City offers an ideal location and convenient access in a progressive and pioneering environment.

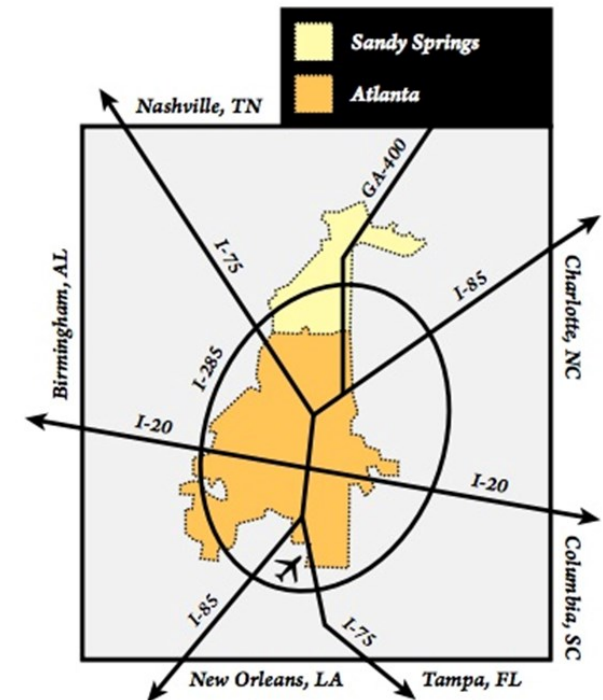

If you are seeking a location in the center of it all, you've found a home in Sandy Springs. The City, located just north of the city of Atlanta, is served by five Interstate interchanges on Interstate 285 and Georgia Highway 400. Those living and working in Sandy Springs also receive transportation assistance through four stations on the MARTA transit system.

For those who frequently travel by air, Sandy Springs is only 30 minutes away via car or MARTA train from Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport, the busiest in the world.

While the City's residential population hovers just under 100,000, the daytime population more than doubles with a vibrant workforce attracted to the variety of opportunities including Cox Communications, AirWatch, and Graphic Packaging. Our Perimeter Center business district is considered one of the largest Class A office markets within the Southeast, and 123,000 workers are based in this business district.

The largest employers within Sandy Springs are hospitals, headquarters and regional offices from a variety of industries including computer-related services, package delivery, telecommunications, media, financial transaction processing and more.

Sandy Springs is home to three nationally-recognized hospitals: Northside Hospital, St. Joseph's Hospital (Emory Healthcare) and Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, comprising 40 percent of the hospital beds in the region and more than 20 percent of the City's total employment.

The new and exciting Sandy Springs City Center Development is just 2 blocks from your office!

Sandy Springs City Center Development includes government offices, a performing arts center and studio theatre/meeting space, an on-site park, residential and retail components. Partners in the project include: Carter/Selig (Master Developer), Rosser International (Architect) jB+a (Landscape Architect), Holder Construction (Construction Manager) and Spectra (Program Activation for Public Components)

Amenities:

- Unique, vibrant, walkable City Center rich in amenities desired by the community, such as commercial retail, recreational and cultural facilities
- A walkable, mixed-use development that introduces substantial new dining, amenity retail, and entertainment options
- New civic/cultural center that functions as a place of community activity and identity
- Walkable streets, stormwater, traffic flow, transit services, bicycling facilities, parking, utilities and signage
- Green space network that accommodates a variety of activities, draws activity from new development, and ties together City Center, Sandy Springs' established neighborhoods and existing open spaces
