CENTRAL BIBLE COLLEGE

The campus closed in 2014. Now is the time to buy and Bid Your Price!

This is your opportunity to join this movement and be part of the smart growth of Springfield!

Springfield is the region's hub and home to Missouri State University, Drury University, other private colleges, companies such as Bass Pro Shop, Springfield Branson International Airport and is the gateway to the Ozarks.

Springfield is the county seat of Greene County, third most populous city in the state of Missouri in a region with a population that has increased 20% since 2000. The economically diverse area is rated as the fastest growing metro area in Missouri.

It is ideally connected to southern Missouri and northern Arkansas and the country through its Interstate 44 highway and three state highway location and the Springfield Branson International Airport. Springfield is a major hub for warehousing and distribution due to its location on two major railways.
