Neighborhood Summary

The subject property is located in the Grafton section of York County on the east side of U.S. Route 17 (George Washington Memorial Highway),  $\frac{1}{4}$  -mile north of the intersection of Lakeside Drive. The county is generally bound by Newport News to the west and south, the York River and U.S. Naval Weapons Station to the north, and the Chesapeake Bay to the east.

The population of York County was 56,297 based on the 2000 census. On average, the population grew at an annual rate of about 4% per annum between 1960 and 2000 (21,583 to 56,297 persons).

York County's economic base is closely tied to tourism and the military. It is the site of the Yorktown Naval Weapons Station, as well as tourist attractions such as the Yorktown Battlefield and Water Country USA. Major industry includes the Amoco Oil refinery and a Philip Morris plant.

Commercial uses fronting this section of George Washington Memorial Highway include a variety of uses including strip centers, free standing retail buildings, office buildings, convenience stores/gasoline stations and churches. Residential development is primarily located to the east of the subject property. Many of these neighborhoods benefit from water views and frontage along the Poquoson River.

George Washington Memorial Highway (U.S. Route 17) is a median divided, four-lane highway that extends from the James River Bridge (Hampton, VA) to Gloucester, Virginia and adjoining counties to the north. Additional access to the neighborhood is provided by Denbigh Boulevard which, intersects George Washington Memorial Highway, one mile north of the subject, and extends to the Warwick River in Newport News.

The most proximate commercial development in the county is south of the subject in the Grafton area. Washington Square and the Grafton Shopping Center are both located at the intersection of Dare Road and Route 17. Washington Square is a 156,000+ SF community center anchored by Roses, Food Lion and Rite Aid. Grafton Shopping Center is a 60,000+ neighborhood center. Other development at the intersection includes banks, gas stations, and fast food restaurants.

The focus of residential and commercial development in York County has been at Kiln Creek, which is located in the southern end of the county at Victory Boulevard, southwest of the subject. The development encompasses areas of both York County and Newport News. Kiln Creek contains 1,200 acres and will ultimately include 2,500 to 4,000 residential units. Commercial development includes a Super K store, Real Cinema complex, a Farm Fresh supermarket, and a variety of in-line and free-standing retail and service businesses.

In summary, the subject is well located on U. S. Route 17, a heavily traveled thoroughfare through York County. The proximity to employment centers and the easy access should continue to make the subject a viable property based on its current use.

(d) In the event of conflict between the Tables of Lot and Building Dimensional Requirements and the text of this chapter, the text shall control.

Sec. 24.1-305. Additional requirements.

(a) Additional provisions which may be directly applicable to the types of development permitted in the zoning districts are contained in other sections of this chapter and may qualify or supplement the regulations presented within each district. Furthermore, other provisions of the code, including without limitation, the erosion and sediment control ordinance, stormwater management ordinance and subdivision ordinance may affect the use and development of land.

(b) Performance standards for most uses are contained in article IV of this chapter. These are minimum standards which must be achieved for the establishment of the use to which they pertain whether the use is permitted as a matter of right or only by a special or administrative permit. Additional performance standards may be imposed during the issuance of special use permits in accordance with the applicable provisions of this chapter.

DIVISION 2. RESIDENTIAL DISTRICTS

AGENCY DISCLOSURE

In a real estate transaction, when the Agent represents the:

Seller/Landlord:

then an Agent under a listing agreement with a seller acts as the agent for the seller. The listing company and all of its broker/agents, and the selling company and all of its agents as subagents of the seller, would owe their fiduciary duties to the seller. The broker and broker's agents may still provide buyer/tenants, as customers, with information about properties and available financing, may show them properties, and may assist them in preparing an offer to purchase, option or lease a particular property.

Buyer/Tenant:

then an Agent under a contract with a buyer acts as the agent for that buyer only, as a "Buyer/Broker/Agent," and the Agent is not the seller's agent, even if the Purchase Contract provides that the Seller or the Listing Broker will pay the Agent for the services rendered to the buyer/tenant. An Agent acting as the buyer's/tenant's agent must disclaim sub agency if offered and must disclose the Buyer/Tenant Broker/Agent relationship when dealing with the seller's/landlord's Agent or the Seller/Landlord. The Buyer/Tenant Broker/Agent owes its fiduciary duties to the buyer/tenant.

Buyer and Seller (Acting as a Dual Agent):

then an Agent, either acting directly or through one or more of the brokerage firm's other Agents, may be the Agent of both the buyer and the seller, but only if the scope of the agency is limited by a written agreement and only with the express knowledge and written consent of both the buyer and the seller. An Agent representing both the buyer and the seller must disclose all information regarding the agency relationship, including the limitation on the Agent's ability to represent either party fully and exclusively. The Agent must not disclose to either party, without the prior consent of the party adversely affected by the disclosure, any information obtained within the confidentiality and trust of the fiduciary relationship. As an example, the Agent must not tell the buyer that the seller will accept a price lower than the listing price, nor tell the seller that the buyer will pay a price offered, without the prior consent of the party adversely affected by the disclosure.
