The TIVOL STORY

Looking back at Tivol's success over the years it's easy to see why Harold Tivol always has that smile on his face. The first Tivol store was founded in 1910 by immigrant Charles Tivol. A meticulous craftsman, Tivol built up a loyal clientele based on his reputation for consistent quality. His son, and current chairman of the company, Harold Tivol, injected the business acumen and marketing savvy that enabled the opening of a new store at the Country Club Plaza in 1951. Originally operating from a 4-by-15-foot space, the store initially grew to 6,000 square feet after a couple of expansions and renovations. That store, the company's flagship, now occupies a gargantuan 10,000 square feet. Currently under the leadership of third-generation Cathy Tivol, the company has another two successful area branches.

LONG-TERM RELATIONSHIPS

Tivol's long history has done more than make the store a local landmark. Relationships forged over many years play an important role in the store's success. "One element of the business philosophy at Tivol is focused on relationships. Our sales professionals know birthdays, anniversaries and other milestones in customers' lives," says Kevin Gabriel, Tivol's marketing director. The store continues to draw on past relationships and family ties to expand and solidify its current customer base, he says. "Just as Tivol is now being led by the third generation, we have third and fourth generations of families now shopping with us." Tivol stresses the importance of relationship building and management when targeting corporate clients. "As part of our corporate services, we have ideas on gift etiquette to remind other business professionals of the importance of building relationships. One way to do this is with a corporate gift to recognize a job well done, to say thank you for your business, and to demonstrate to employees, clients, volunteers or vendors that they are valued," Gabriel says.

SELLING WITH A SMILE

In contrast to the often rather somber image portrayed by some luxury jewelers, Tivol is a store that manages to ooze sophistication while firmly keeping a smile on its face. The store's humorous, eye-catching advertising can be attributed in part to Harold Tivol's own character and flair for marketing. Working with a local Kansas City ad agency, Tivol recently executed a series of ads that feature Mr. Tivol and highlight his extraordinary sense of humor. "He is so well known in our community - he really is the brand icon of Tivol - and we wanted to show him as the kind, funny and approachable gentleman that he is. While we are a luxury jewelry store and cater to a high-end clientele, we want to decrease the intimidation factor that some may feel, "Gabriel says.

THE TIVOL EXPERIENCE

"It is the Tivol experience that makes us different," Gabriel says. In terms of product, the majority of brand carried by Tivol are exclusive in the market and overlap is minimal. While Gabriel sees product differentiation as an important way to stand out, he's quick to stress the need to provide a complete package. "We focus on the overall experience," he says, "We want customers to feel like it is a small escape when they walk into one of our stores." Tivol has transformed its bridal area and lounges into cozy sanctuaries and has LCD monitors throughout the store. While visitors can catch the game or latest news, Tivol uses the opportunity to broadcast timely and topical videos to its captive audience. "The music, the televisions and magazines all add to the experience of dealing with a knowledgeable sales staff that enjoys the opportunity to educate a customer and help them select the perfect piece," Gabriel says.

TIVOL IN PRINT

In response to the success of the store's catalogs, rather than rely on outside publications alone to carry the brand, Tivol produces its own twice-yearly magazine. Published by Business Journals, Inc. in New York City. Tivol Accent is a slick and stylish magazine that wouldn't look out of place alongside industry-leading fashion publications.
