PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Built in 1967 as a Freemason's Lodge, 2690 Alston Dr. was renovated in 2016 to house modern, upscale small business offices. The spaces are ideal for a small business owner or regional office operator needing a private office, shared conference room, and onsite parking. The building has card-access and CCTV security system, among other amenities.

With monthly rental of a private office you also get access to a shared conference room that accommodates up to 10 people comfortably. Cast your presentations on the High Definition Video Display or scratch out ideas on the 8' white board.

The property provides cost effective, professional executive offices, collaborative meeting space and a common lounge area with plentiful natural light in a convenient location. Our contemporary atmosphere provides the flexibility and professional image you want and need to maximize productivity. 1 – 4 offices available.

LOCATION

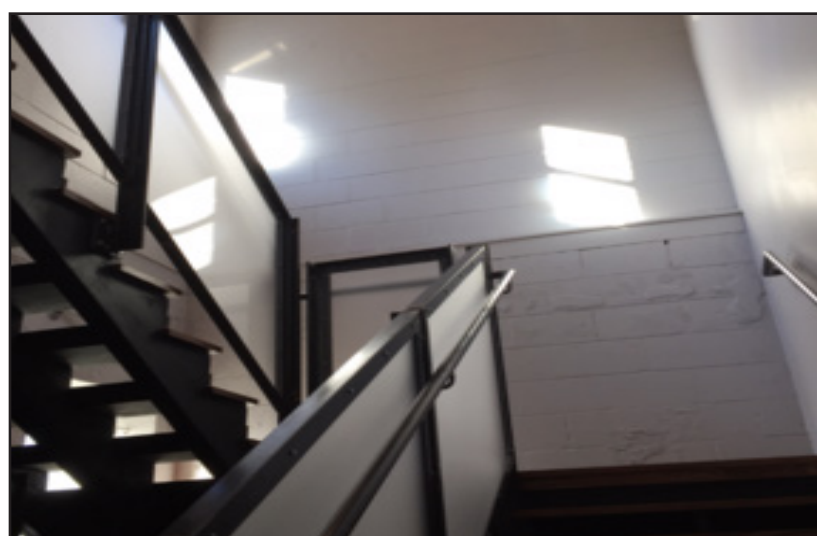

Only minutes from casual, midrange, and fine dining in the City of Decatur, East Lake, and Kirkwood neighborhoods, the location presents occupants with many options for lunch outings or after-hours entertainment. Convenient to I-20 and 15 minutes to Downtown Atlanta.
